The Connecticut Council on Adoption, Inc. (CCA) is a voluntary non-profit 501 (c)(3) organization dedicated to permanence for children and ethical, effective adoption practices in the State of CT. CCA provides information, trainings/forums on various issues to child-placing agencies, CT DCF, CAFAF, adoptive & foster parents, adoptees, birth parents, therapists, educators and court personnel. CCA researches and advocates on important adoption-related policies and proposed legislation on behalf of those touched by adoption. CCA was formed in 1976 by a group of adoptive and birth parents together with individuals involved in adoption services with CT's public child welfare agency, CT child-placing agencies and the CT Probate Court with the purpose of fostering trainings and cooperation among public, private and volunteer sectors to serve children in need of permanent families. CCA membership benefits one with opportunities for connections, collaboration and information sharing on adoption matters across the state. For additional information on CCA's Board, events and resources, please visit www.ctadopt.org.

Membership in CCA shall be open to any individual or agency/ organization having a purpose consistent with the CCA mission. A member is entitled to one vote on issues before CCA and to attend CCA- sponsored trainings at a reduced rate. An agency or organization can designate up to two agency staff to represent the agency/organization at CCA trainings or meetings at the member discount and can have agency information featured yearly on the CCA website.

The fee for Individual membership is $20 annually and $50 for Agency/Organization Membership for the period from January 1st to December 31th. Students may join for $15 annually.

Membership can be completed on the CCA website at www.ctadopt.org or returning this form with payment to the below CCA address. Please direct questions about membership to Noreen Bachteler, CCA Membership Chair, at: info@ctadopt.org
